

Announcing the American Institute of Pakistan Studies' FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM 2010-11

Applications are invited for research fellowships at the pre- or post-doctoral level for projects lasting two to nine months. Awards will include international travel expenses and stipends (subject to availability of funds). The amount of the stipends will be comparable to Fulbright Awards and will be determined by the Fellowships Committee based on availability of funds and current per diem rates as defined by the US State Department. (Total fellowship support can range from $3000 to $25,000.) Funds may be used for research on materials relating to the history and culture of Pakistan in any country EXCEPT Pakistan and the US.

Eligibility

Applicants must be U.S. citizens or enrolled/employed full-time in an institution of higher education in the USA. Pre-doctoral applicants should have completed all requirements for the Ph.D. except the dissertation.

Fees

A non-refundable processing fee of $30 must be included with the completed application form. Any forms that are incomplete will be returned without refund to the applicant.

Post-doctoral awardees who are not affiliated with an AIPS member institution, must pay an administrative fee of $250 before beginning the Fellowship. Pre-doctoral applicants do not need to pay the administrative fee, but should enroll as AIPS individual members prior to commencing the fellowship.

Application Procedure

Applications can be sent by mail or email (preferable). The application form includes a proposal (5 page maximum), curriculum vitae (2 page maximum), and three letters of reference. (If submitted via email, the letters should come from the referees' own email account.)

Pre-doctoral applications should also include a transcript and a letter from the dissertation advisor. (This letter can be one of the three letters of reference.)

Please check Fellowship FAQ's for the proposal guidelines.
